

EJERCICIOS INGLÉS

Present simple & continuous - Exercises

1. Complete the sentences with the present simple or present continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

1. Every year, our company organizes (organize) a big charity event in December.
2. Look at the sky! It getting (get) darker and darker.
3. My brother usually takes (take) the bus, but today he is walking (walk) because the weather is nice.
4. I can't talk right now — I am having (have) lunch with some colleagues.
5. Maria doesn't understand (not understand) why you're always late.
6. The shop usually closes (close) at 8 p.m., but this week it is staying (stay) open until 10 because of the sales.
7. At the moment, we are working (work) on a new project for an international client.
8. He never eats (eat) vegetables, which is why he feels (feel) tired so often.
9. I am seeing (see) the dentist tomorrow at 5 — I booked the appointment last week.
10. Students often forget (forget) their homework if I don't remind them.

2. Write sentences using present simple or continuous with the verbs and words below. Use the affirmative, negative or interrogative form.

1. (she / usually / go / to the gym / before work): She usually goes to the gym before work
2. (we / work / on / a special project / this week /?): Are we working on a special project this week?
3. (they / not / believe / in / horoscopes): They don't believe in horoscopes
4. (it / rain / a lot / at the moment): It is raining a lot at the moment
5. (he / meet / his friends / tonight): He meets his friends tonight
6. (you / study / English / this semester /?): Do you study English this semester?

3. Complete the text with the present simple or present continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

Every year, our family (1) travels (travel) to the mountains for a week in August. We usually (2) rent (rent) the same wooden cabin near a lake, and we (3) spend (spend) our days hiking, swimming, and reading. Right now, as I (4) write (write) this message, my parents (5) are packing (pack) the car and my sister (6) is looking (look) for her sunglasses. It's a tradition that everyone (7) looks (look) forward to all year because it (8) means (mean) time away from work and school.

This year, we (9) are leaving (leave) earlier than usual because my dad (10) has (have) some extra days off. The weather forecast (11) says (say) it's going to be sunny all week, which is perfect. Normally, my grandmother (12) comes (come) with us, but this time she (13) is staying (stay) home because she (14) feels (feel) a bit tired.

Past simple & continuous – Exercises

1 Complete the sentences with the past simple or past continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

1. While I was walking (walk) through the park yesterday evening, I (see) a beautiful sunset.
2. She was cooking (cook) dinner when the lights suddenly (go) out.
3. At 9 p.m. last night, we were watching (watch) the final episode of our favourite series.
4. He didn't hear (not hear) the phone because he was listening (listen) to music with his headphones on.
5. As the teacher was explaining (explain) the exercise, two students (start) started to arguing.
6. When I was cooking (cook) dinner yesterday, she was setting (set) the table for us.
7. We were having (have) lunch in a small café when it suddenly started to (start) to snow.
8. While my parents were painting (paint) the living room, my brother and I were cleaning (clean) the garage.
9. She finished (finish) her presentation on time yesterday, despite the technical problems.
10. What were you doing (you / do) at 10 o'clock last night?

2 Write sentences using past simple or past continuous with the words below. Use the affirmative, interrogative and negative form.

1. (they / travel / to Portugal / last summer):
They traveled to Portugal last summer.
Did they travel to Portugal last summer? They didn't travel to Portugal last summer.
2. (we / have dinner / when / the phone / ring): We were having dinner when the phone rang.
Were we having dinner when the phone rang?
Negative: We weren't having dinner when the phone rang.
3. (she / not / study / at 8 p.m. / yesterday):
She was not studying at 8 p.m. yesterday.
Was she studying at 8 p.m. yesterday? She wasn't studying at 8 p.m. yesterday.
4. (I / walk / home / while / my sister / talk / on the phone):
I was walking home while my sister was talking on the phone. Was I walking home while my sister was talking on the phone?
I wasn't walking home while my sister was talking on the phone.
5. (he / break / his glasses / while / he / play / basketball):
He broke his glasses while he was playing basketball. Did he break his glasses while he was playing basketball?
He didn't break his glasses while he was playing basketball.
6. (he / read / a book / when / the storm / start): He was reading a book when the storm started.
Was he reading a book when the storm started? He wasn't reading a book when the storm started.

3 Complete the text with the present simple or present continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

Last weekend, I (1) decided (decide) to visit my cousin in Valencia. While I (2) was driving (drive) along the coast, I (3) saw (see) a group of dolphins swimming near the shore. It was amazing! When I finally (4) arrived (arrive) at her house, she (5) was preparing (prepare) a delicious paella for lunch.

In the afternoon, we (6) (walk) around the city centre and (7) (talk) talked about our plans for the summer. Suddenly, as we (8) were crossing (cross) the main square, a street musician (9) (start) playing one of our favourite songs. We (10) stopped (stop) to listen and (11) took (take) a few pictures.

Later that night, while everyone (12) was dancing (dance) at the party, my cousin (13) told (tell) me a funny story about her new job. It was one of the best weekends I (14) have had (have) in a long time.

Present perfect simple & continuous – Exercises

1 Complete the sentences with the present perfect simple or continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

1. I have lived (live) in this city for more than ten years.
2. She has not finished (not finish) her project yet; she's still working on it.
3. We have been waiting (wait) for the bus since half past seven.
4. He just spilled (just spill) coffee all over his new laptop.
5. They have known (know) each other since primary school.
6. My hands are dirty because I have been painting (paint) the kitchen all morning.
7. She has never tried (never try) Indian food before.
8. It has been raining (rain) constantly for the last two days.
9. I have already read (already read) that book twice.
10. He looks tired because he has been studying (study) for his exams all week.

2 Write sentences using present perfect simple or continuous with the words below. Use the affirmative, interrogative and negative form.

1.(she / work / here / since March) She has worked here since March

Has she worked here since March? She has not worked since March.

2.(they / not finish / their homework / yet) They have not finished their homework yet.

Have they finished their homework yet?

3.(you / ever / be / to London / ?) Have you ever been to London?

I have never been to London

4.(I / wait / for you / all morning) I have been waiting for you all morning.

Have I been waiting for you all morning. I have not been waiting for you all morning.

5.(he / just / break / his phone) He has just broken his phone. Has he just broken his phone.

He has not just broken his phone

6.(we / not see / each other / for years) We have not seen each other for years.

Have we seen each other for years. We have not seen each other for years.

7.(it / snow / since last night) It has been snowing since last night

Has it been snowing since last night? It has not been snowing since last night.

8.(how long / you / study / English / ?) How long have you been studying English?

I have not studied English for that long

9.(they / already / leave / the office) They have already left the office

Have they already left the office?

They have not left the office yet

10.(why / she / cry / recently / ?) Why has she been crying recently?

She has not been crying recently

3 Complete the text with the present perfect simple or continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

A Busy Week

This week 1 has been (be) incredibly busy at work. Our company 2 Has launched (launch) a new software update, and everyone 3 has been working (work) extra hours to make sure everything runs smoothly.

I 4 have not slept (not sleep) much these days, and I think I need a long weekend soon!

Our manager 5 has already checked (already check) the system several times today, but problems 6 have been keeping (keep) appearing all morning. It's frustrating, but we 7 have learned (learn) a lot from this situation.

To make things worse, the weather 8 has been (be) awful lately — it 9 has been raining (rain) almost every day since Monday. However, despite the stress, I feel proud of what we 10 have achieved (achieve) so far.